Class War Organizations Bid For Negro Support

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 8.—The race riots without question have served to further arouse the class-war organizations to the Negro as a subject of their propaganda. After the Chicago riots something was said about the radicals being at the bottom of them, and a vast amount of doubt remains as to this. However, since those spectacular events, it is plain enough that the class war people are getting more active than they were. Their efforts are encouraged by actions of the labor unions, such as the railroad men in Detroit, Mich., recently refusing equal representation to the Negro.

At its convention here a short while ago the Socialist Party passed a resolution to the effect that the party should be organized to the Negro, and determined to send organizers among the Negroes in the South. The party also determined to send organizers among the Negroes in the South.

The I. W. W. are getting out another pamphlet for the Negro, said Thomas White, assistant secretary. The pamphlet is entitled "The Negro and the I. W. W."

A. E. E. TEMPORS TO U.S. CONGRESS

Poem "If We Must Die" Is Quoted in Petition Against Lynching by the Ministers.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Oct. 8.—Signs of the times are discernible in an unusual and defiant attitude in a memorial which has been sent to Congress by six Negro bishops of the African Methodist Episcopal Church. Petitioning for a Congressional inquiry into the recent race riots in Washington, Chicago and Knoxville, the bishops wrote the Congress that the temper of the Negro of today is much different from that of a half century or a score of years ago, and that "death is preferable to a shameful way between the living and the dead."

In their memorial the bishops stated that the times are discernible in an unusual and defiant attitude in a memorial which has been sent to Congress by six Negro bishops of the African Methodist Episcopal Church.

Dyer Asks Congress To Investigate Riots

Washington, October 2.—Race riots and other forms of mob violence occurring in Omaha, Washington, D. C., and other cities are to be investigated by the Judiciary Committee of the House, according to the provisions of a resolution introduced today by Representative Dyer, Republican, of Missouri.

If Congress were able to ascertain accurately the underlying causes of racial disturbances that have occurred so frequently in this country recently, said Dyer, "and adopt legislation to prevent it, it would go far toward checking the spread of social and economic unrest. It would be important that an investigation should be held and I hope my resolution will be passed promptly."

The resolution empowers the committee to hold sessions in any part of the United States and to employ such report shall be made as to remedial measures that should be employed to prevent recurrence of the disturbances.

BISHOP BLANTON CALLS FOR AMERICAN KAISER

Sealer Severely Criticized for Racial Lynching, Called of High Treason, Should Be Punished.

HANNIBAL, Mo., Oct. 6.—"Where is our country drifting when a man who is elected by the people is allowed to make laws to govern us will allow the United States Senate to endorse lynching?" was the question asked by Bishop H. Blanton, of Missouri, at the annual conference of the Missouri African Methodist Episcopal Church which closed last night after five days session.

"I consider Senator Williams the American Kaiser," continued the bishop, "and unless this government calls a halt to men in high position who are allowed to endorse lynching, the future of our country is dark. That Senator who put his approval on lynching is guilty of high treason and should be punished."

Resolutions were passed endorsing the colored war veterans and their efforts to secure recognition for their services. The conference was held at the Hotel Hamilton in Hannibal, Mo.

ST. JAMES NOTES.
The text chosen for the week Sunday morning was taken from Psalm 111: "The Lord is great and full of knowledge." The sermon was scholarly, instructive, inspiring. King David and his people were surrounded by enemies. In his extremity he cried the psalm, "The Lord is great and full of knowledge." The people were inspired and needed to be awakened to the knowledge of one God. The same condition exists today, which is the foundation of our faith, but we put into practice, peace will not be established.

There were six addresses in the morning. In evening service was well attended and the worshippers well pleased. As the pastor delivered another strong sermon, "The Lord is great and full of knowledge." The church members were very happy and enjoyed the service. "League of Nations" Ros Menelik, Colored And Grand Bazaar At All Saints Church

The League of Nations and Grand Bazaar at All Saints Church, the Women's Guild of All Saints Church, Garrison and Locust, Tuesday evening, October 15, with that of the V. P. Ball at the Coliseum.

Mrs. Ros Menelik, colored, arrived in St. Louis on scheduled time, first paying a visit to the Booker Washington Theatre, where he occupied a room and divided his time with a splendid and exceptionally well-timed and successful play.

From the Booker Washington Theatre, Mr. H. H. in his motor, drove through the region in the vicinity of Jazland, viewed by the throngs. At 10 p. m., with a state of triumph and a crash of crash, he entered Jazland. He was dressed in gorgeous raiment, befitting his royal station, and mingled with his subjects, after sitting in state on the subjects' balcony, that he might choose a Queen. Never had a man more difficult task. It would have been most easier, to have crowned a hundred Queens, than to have selected one from the multitude of handsomely dressed, beautiful ladies, and the special attractions of the evening.

The presenters were: Misses Anna Belle Douglas, Isabelle Williams, Mable Sledge, Anna Williams, Elizabeth Hamer, Anna Holt, Estelle Hammond, Ella Ramsey, Orville Hunt, Junia Sledge, Rosetta Campbell, and their respective escorts: George Irvin, Robert Swift, Boyd Jones, Wesley Hudson, Bernard Claggett, Charles Harrison, Lester Thomas, Hardman, McKinley Hardman, Norman Williams, O. Horton and Willie Hunt. The evening was planned to be spent in dancing and other diversified amusements with a well-prepared five-course dinner. All left for their homes long in their praise for the manner in which they were entertained. George Irvin, president; Boyd Swift, vice-president; Boyd Jones, secretary; Bernard Claggett, business manager; Charles Harrison, treasurer.

Public Opinion Gained By Associated Negro Press

COME, ALL YE PEOPLE!

United States Senator Warren G. Harding, of Ohio, in a statement to the Associated Negro Press, declared: "Publicity is going to be the greatest weapon of the colored people of the United States." Senator Harding is an unquestioned authority. Not only is he in a position as a public official to see and know at first hand the value of publicity, but he is the owner of one of the best established daily newspapers in the country, and a judge of its actual distinction.

The efforts of alarmed southern politicians to impede the progress and handicap the wonderfully growing influence of our periodicals have met with disaster both in Congress and at the instance of President Wilson. The field is wide open to strike the blow for liberty through the powerful medium of publicity, and we must make the current when it serves.

Publicity is expensive, but properly directed, yields returns far in excess of the investment. There is room for every newspaper now published, but there must be unity of purpose and unity of action. Fifteen years ago, it was the exceptional home that received its first newspaper. Five years ago it was the average home; today, the average home receives not only one but two or three newspapers, and the exceptional home, office, store, the schools and churches and libraries, receive from six to more than a score. This is progress; this is success.

But you have a long way to go. True, in thousands of instances, the remotest cabins in the distant hills receive their newspapers. Now, and the opportunity read them religiously. Through the magnificent advantage of the Associated Negro Press, all important happenings of the race are known regularly in about 80,000 homes of the nation, and by all classes. But there are yet thousands of homes into which our newspapers must go. There are millions of dollars spent with firms that should be induced to advertise in our periodicals, in a spirit of reciprocity, and to enable publishers to meet the heavy expense of adequate publicity, so do the daily newspapers.

IN THESE CRUCIAL DAYS OF THE ACID TEST, EVERY READER OF EVERY NEWSPAPER SHOULD MAKE HIMSELF OR HERSELF AN UNTRUSTING AGENT AND COMMITTEE OF ONE TO SEE THAT THESE NEEDS ARE BROUGHT TO PASS. WE HAVE THIRTY ENEMIES OF JUSTICE ON THIS RUM, ALCOHOLIC WINE, DRINKING THEIR WATERLOO, ONWARD!

Black and White Again.
(Chicago, Ill., Herald-Examiner)

One Negro was killed and two were injured this week in a fight with whites in the heart of the Negro section, in Chicago. No. In New York, the whites are fighting the Negroes, some people think the sky is clear again. No idea could be more foolish.

So long as we have discrimination, unfair treatment, a feeling of brooding injustice between white man and Negro, we shall have a burning fire on its way to high explosion.

New York makes Chicago for its race riots. We do not mock New York. The problem is too serious and too important for anything but the most painful consideration. How shall we convince the Negro, who fought for his country and saw a nation of his race serving her colors, the truth that it is the truth, that his country wants him, needs him, and that it is in its urgent desire for his welfare?

Selling the People.
(Hochstetler, N. Y. Democrat)
Whenever a Negro is lynched or otherwise killed, the news is carried in every paper in the land. Therefore from the reports of somewhere between a hundred to a hundred and fifty thousand to a hundred thousand of copies, we are able to get a distorted idea of the situation. For there is an other side to the Negro question. There are thousands and thousands of instances showing how the race is progressing in a most commendable manner, and countless cases in which material aid in the advancement is furnished by the white people among whom the Negroes' lot is cast. This is true even in the South where most of the lynchings occur. Sometimes the story of the matter gets into print, but the greater part of it usually remains merely a matter of local knowledge.

Negro Democrats.
(Columbus, S. C. State)
The New York Age, a newspaper published and edited by Negroes in editorial article commenting on the presidential election in New York.

It is significant that the Democrats have for the first time in the history of the party renounced the expediency of nominating a colored candidate for the Legislature.

The assertion could not be made true outside of New York. Between 1876 and 1890, Negroes were nominated and elected in the General Assembly of South Carolina in at least four counties. Colleton, Orangeburg, Charleston and Beaufort. Harwell in Charleston and Orangeburg, Meares and Jones, respectively, were re-elected four or five times. Negroes were also elected by the Democrats in those days sometimes to other offices as coroners and county commissioners.

The election of Negroes to office was discontinued by the general adoption of the white primary.

White Negroes are not admitted to the white primary. Not only in South Carolina now, it is not impossible that some of them would be if they should prove themselves first in the Democratic. In other words, if some thousands of respectable Negro citizens scattered about the State would vote the Democratic ticket in the general elections once or twice, taking pains to do so openly and to establish in that way the evidence that they were Democrats, it would be rather difficult later for the State Democratic convention to keep the party's door closed to them. It will be remembered that Negroes who voted for Hampton in 1876 and could prove it were allowed to vote in the primaries.

A CASE FOR CONGRESS.

(Albany, N. Y., Knickerbocker Press)
The other day in Memphis, Tenn., a Negro operating an automobile ran into a group of children. None of the children were injured but it did not take two minutes for a mob of angry white men to have a noose around the Negro's throat, and when a white man suggested that the law be allowed to take its course the crowd sprang to the city which has more murders to the square foot than any other in the world was so aroused that it thirty seconds the rope was transferred from the Negro's neck to that of the white man.

Sometimes we think that every man in Memphis carries a rope as part of his outdoor costume. Anyway the police arrived, and the Negro was locked up on a charge of criminal carelessness, while the white man who had attempted to speak a word for the law was "held in the city jail in connection with another alleged offense," as the euphemistical Associated Press will have it—murder.

It is not about time for the civilized United States to take cognizance of the fact that the controlling sentiment of the southern states is in favor of mob lawlessness and mob rule. The protests of decent southern whites are of no account; if they were, there would not have been five hundred lynchings in the last year.

The protests of decent southern whites are of no account; if they were, there would not have been five hundred lynchings in the last year.

This is a case for Congress. The best face the south can put upon its predicament is to say that it is not rich enough to police itself. And when any Anglo-Saxon community is not able to enforce the Anglo-Saxon conceptions of law and right, it is fair to expect the same of the Negro element in the North that interference of neighbors who cannot afford, for their own sakes, to permit the law to be a burning fire on its way to high explosion.

Jim Crow Practice (Help)
(Macon, Ga., Telegraph)

Perhaps Congressman Madden of Illinois, the chief white prophet of the Jim Crow element in the North that so bitterly resents segregation of our Negro blood, might retire as an authority on the best basis for the South. Citizenship and white supremacy to the section of the country where they do not belong together, and about the same time, the white world had no use for anything but the most painful consideration. How shall we convince the Negro, who fought for his country and saw a nation of his race serving her colors, the truth that it is the truth, that his country wants him, needs him, and that it is in its urgent desire for his welfare?

In the South the races are segregated in public conveyances and residential sections because they are different races and it is found they get along better that way. That is the reason for it. The Negro would be uncomfortable and unhappy trying to sit in street cars beside white people he respected and the white indolently wouldn't do it; the same way with residences and theatres and hotels. The easy and natural solution of it all is segregation where both races live in close contact with an absolute minimum of friction.

There could, of course, be plenty of argument brought to bear why this isn't or shouldn't be. The only thing in its favor that it works splendidly and all other schemes don't. That is why it is now, and always will be observed and enforced in the South. Sometimes all the desperate and declining statements from constitutions in the North where they "oust trouble to Negroes" are not as effective as the way furnishing in that connection an illuminating commentary on the oppressed assertion that the Negro wants a "political" equality and nothing else.
